The Trial of the Conspirators.

WASHINGTON, May 23. The Court met at half past ten this morning with special reference to the prisoners at the bar, he would to morrow be ready to go on with the defence, as he was not disposed to waste the valuable time of the Court.

Col. Burnett, Assistant Judge Advocate, remarked that four or five witnesses were vet to be examined with reference to the accused, some of them were in Baltimore and some in this city. but the latter had not been able to cross the line of the military review to reach this place.

The testimony taken yesterday was read. Mr. Ewing made a request, which was granted, to have his former statement amended, so that it might appear that he had asked that all the testimony against the accused be introduced before the commencement of the examination of the witnesses for the defence; the counsel for the defense, however, having no objection that the testimony as to a general conspiracy, might bereafter be introduced by the Government Judge Advocate Gen. Holt briefly stated the difficulty of procuring the attendance of witnesses at this time, and after a brief consultation the Court adjourned until Saturday.

FROM YESTERDAY'S N. Y. PAPERS

THE PEOPLE ASKING FOR A CONVENTION IN GEORGIA. NEW YORK, May 23 -The Herald's Macon correspondence says: The people of the interior of Georgia are rapidly settling themselves to a condition of peace. Forage and provisions are being brought freely into the places occupied by the Union troops, and the citizens are demanding a convention, and the reconstruction of the State Government. Four of Davis' famous breech loading cannon had been unearthed from a cemetery in Macon, and the soldiers finding them had asked permis sion to take them home and present them as and Michigan.

The Grand Review in Washington. WASHINGTON, May 23 -As early as 7 o'clock this morning large numbers of people assembled on Pennsylvania avenue to witness the grand review. The day is beautiful, and everything is in the utmost order for the march of the warworn troops. The avenue, at an early hour, was washed by the fire department, so as to have it bright and clean. In front of the President's house an immense stand has been erected, on the south side of the street, for the President and Cabinet, and for the gallant officers of Grant and Sherman, who are to review the troops Another stand on the north side is for the accommodation of members of Congress and

A stand is also erected on the Square for wounded soldiers The houses in the vicinity of the President's house are tastefully adorned with dags and evergreens.

The route of march is packed with people, all eager to give the heroes of the war a hearty wel come. The columns commenced to march at 9 o'clock, the first being headed by Gen. Meade. followed by his staff He was enthusiastically received along the route, the ladies waving their handkerchiets.
